Theories and models Dual concern model. The dual concern model of conflict resolution is a conceptual perspective that assumes individuals' preferred method of dealing with conflict is based on two underlying themes or dimensions: concern for self (assertiveness) and concern for others ().According to the model, group members balance their concern for satisfying personal needs and interests ...

Conflict resolution - Wikipedia

An ethnic conflict is a conflict between two or more contending ethnic groups.While the source of the conflict may be political, social, economic or religious, the individuals in conflict must expressly fight for their ethnic group's position within society.This final criterion differentiates ethnic conflict from other forms of struggle. Ethnic conflict does not necessarily have to be violent.
