While revivalists like Mohammed Naveed insist Islamic Banking is "as old as the religion itself with its principles primarily derived from the Quran", secular historians and Islamic modernists see it as a modern phenomenon or "invented tradition".. Early banking. According to Timur Kuran, by "the tenth century, Islamic law supported credit and investment instruments" that were "as advanced" as ...

Financial economics is the branch of economics characterized by a "concentration on monetary activities", in which "money of one type or another is likely to appear on both sides of a trade". Its concern is thus the interrelation of financial variables, such as prices, interest rates and shares, as opposed to those concerning the real economy.It has two main areas of focus: asset pricing and ...

Why is this important? NAB recognises that climate change is a significant risk and a major challenge for the global economy and society. We support the transition to a low carbon economy, consistent with the global agreement reached in Paris to limit global warming to less than 2 degrees above pre-industrial levels (the Paris Agreement).

In keeping with the principles of Scouting, the program of the unit is paid for by the members with money they earn and save themselves. A unit that operates through the generosity of others and finances itself by the efforts of adults fails in its responsibility to teach its members self-reliance.
